Dear John:

Thank you for your letter concerning our construction activities across the road from the Claude Moore Colonial Farm at Turkey Run. I concur completely with your observations, and action is already under way to improve the appearance of the area.

To ensure that these improvements have your approval I have asked [redacted] Chief of the New Building Project Office, to meet with Andy Wahlquist of your staff to achieve our mutual goal of a "good neighbor" policy.

Sincerely,

WJC Bill

Honorable William Casey
Director of Central Intelligence

Dear Bill:

The past several years, I have been privileged to serve as Honorary Co-Chairman of the Claude Moore Colonial Farm at Turkey Run. The other Co-Chairman is my colleague Congressman Frank Wolf.

Recently, I was advised of the plans for the Farm to open the 1985 season and, in particular, the dedication of the new pavilion at the Claude Moore Colonial Farm at Turkey Run which will be opened to the public around July 1st.

Yesterday, Andy Wahlquist, my Administrative Assistant, drove to the Farm to inspect the progress. He advised me that, as he approached the Farm, down an unmarked road alongside the CIA, it became apparent that the CIA may wish to do something to enhance its "good neighbor policy."

I recognize that the construction expansion at the CIA Headquarters is progressing on schedule but, unfortunately, as incumbent with commercial construction, there is construction debris.

May I make the following suggestion regarding the new approach to the new Fairfax County Park and the Claude Moore Colonial Farm at Turkey Run. I suggest that the CIA consider painting the chain-link fence a neutral black color, as opposed to the dilapidated rusty look the fence now has.

Second, if the CIA expansion program provides for any additional landscaping, it would be useful to provide some plantings to hide the fence to the extent possible. The main objection, however, is an area immediately across from the entrance to Turkey Run Farm. This area is apparently used as an employee parking lot and the trash and debris left over from McDonald's and other places is unsightly. At the very least, I am sure the contractors could clean up this area so that the 50,000 visitors to the Park do not have to look at that mess as they enter this 18th Century restored area.

Finally, may I request that the Project Officer talk to the contractors who presently have placed advertisement signs at the entrance to the street running down to the CIA as well as the Park. I know it is customary for contractors to advertise themselves whenever they have a construction project. However, in this instance, I am wondering if those signs could be removed since they really pose no useful purpose and are rather unsightly at this setting.

I would be pleased to have Andy Wahlquist meet with whomever you may designate on your staff to go over to the site and discuss these suggestions with him. I believe that it would enhance the appearance of the CIA and also serve as a more attractive entrance to the two new Parks being developed on the other side of the road.

Thank you for your personal attention to this request.

With best regards,

Sincerely,

John Warner
